

Name _____ Date _____ Section _____

How much do you know? HIV/AIDS Pre-test

1. What does HIV stand for?

2. What does AIDS stand for?

3. What is the relationship between HIV and AIDS?

4. In what possible ways can HIV be transmitted?

5. What are some of the symptoms of HIV infection
 - a. Within the first year after infection?

 - b. From 1-7 years?

 - c. From 7-12 years?

6. What is the basic structure of HIV? (What are its main components?)

7. How does HIV replicate?

8. True/False: HIV lies dormant in a person's body for many years after infection before beginning to replicate and invade cells.

9. True/False: HIV infects ONLY T-cells of the body's immune system.

10. True/False: With the advancements in drug research, the status of the AIDS epidemic is improving worldwide.

11. True/False: Because of the advancements in drug research, the number of deaths worldwide due to AIDS has declined over the past five years.

12. Approximately how many people worldwide are living with AIDS? Approximately how many were newly infected in 2003? (Keep in mind that our worldwide population is over 6 billion).

13. In what area of the world is the HIV/AIDS epidemic most rampant? Why?

14. Is the AIDS epidemic still a concern for in the United States? Why/Why not?