

Survey Analysis by Jessica Forton

1. How does each partner's television watching compare
  - a. with your block's average?
  - b. with the all-block average?
  - c. with the national average of 4-6 hours a day?

Partner 1

Partner 2

Partner 3

How does your block's average compare to the all-block average?

2a. How does your block's television ownership percentage compare to the all-block percentage?

Approximately 60% of all children less than 19 years old have a television in their bedrooms.

How does your block's percentage compare to the national percentage?

How does the all-block percentage compare with the national percentage?

TURN OVER!

Life Sciences-HHMI Outreach. Copyright 2009 President and Fellows of Harvard College.

3. How does each partner's fast food data compare
  - a. with your block's average?
  - b. with the all-block average?

Partner 1

Partner 2

Partner 3

How does your block's average compare with the all-block average?

About 30% of children less than 19 years old eat at a fast food restaurant daily.
How does your block's percentage compare to the national percentage?

How does the all-block percentage compare with the national percentage?

4. How does each partner's exercise data compare
  - a. with your block average?
  - b. with the all-block average?
  - c. with the recommended 30 minutes a day?

Partner 1

Partner 2

Partner 3